ENVIRONMENTAL ACADEMY HELPS LAWMAKERS PREPARE FOR LEGISLATIVE SESSION

MEMBERS OF THE GEORGIA HOUSE GAINED KEEPER INSIGHT INTO IMPORTANT ENVIRONMENTAL ISSUES THROUGH THE 2015 LEGISLATIVE ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY ACADEMY THAT THE INSTITUTE COORDINATED IN PARTNERSHIP WITH UGA MARINE EXTENSION SERVICE.

THREE TOP UGA UNDERGRADUATES SELECTED FOR VINSON FELLOWS PROGRAM

LOCAL FINANCE OFFICERS ATTAIN CERTIFICATION THROUGH INSTITUTE TRAINING

NEW CODE ENFORCEMENT COURSES DEVELOPED BY INSTITUTE FACULTY

Read below about these and other stories.

Institute’s Environmental Academy Helps Lawmakers Prepare for 2016 Legislative Session

Members of the Georgia House gained keener insight into important environmental issues through the 2015 Legislative Environmental Policy Academy that the Institute coordinated in partnership with UGA Marine Extension Service. (more)
Three Top Students Selected for Fall Semester's Vinson Fellows Program
Three talented UGA undergraduates were appointed to semester-long internships through the Vinson Institute Fellows Program. The fellows are paired with faculty mentors to work on research projects that impact the Institute's work with governments throughout Georgia. (more)

Institute Recognizes Local Finance Officers for Achieving Certification
Thirty-five local government officials from across Georgia recently earned local Finance Officer Certification, which recognizes their understanding of public finance topics gained through Institute of Government training. (more)

New Code Enforcement Training Curriculum Developed by Institute Faculty
A yearlong curriculum development effort came to fruition at the Georgia Association of Code Enforcement's Fall Conference in September, when the Institute unveiled a new certificate program that was developed in partnership with the association. (more)

Blairsville, Union County Rebranding Project Engineered by Institute Team
An Institute team worked with Blairsville and Union County leaders to develop a new logo and tagline to help the mountain community stand out in its effort to encourage more young families and growing businesses to settle in the area. (more)

Institute Completes Strategy Assessment for Oconee County Development Authority
An analysis by the Institute's Planning and Environmental Services unit is informing the Oconee County Industrial Development Authority's efforts to devise a more efficient development review process that protects the community's quality of life. (more)

State Finance Officers Earn Certification through Institute Training Program
Fifty-eight finance officers from 23 state agencies successfully completed 84 hours of continuing education through the Institute's Primary Governmental Accounting training program, which is designed to enhance

Upcoming Events
GCCMA Fall Conference: October 28–30
GLGPA Fall Conference: November 10–13
ACCG Lifelong Learning Academy: December 2–3

Newsworthy Notable
Eric Robinson
Public Service Assistant

Eric delivers management training and leadership development instruction to a variety of state and local government officers to help those front-line managers identify efficiencies and better serve the public. Based at our Atlanta office, Eric coordinates the Institute's Corrections Leadership Institute, which helps emerging leaders with the Georgia Department of Corrections become more effective in managing agency opportunities and challenges.

Our Partners in Training:
understanding of advanced accounting and finance topics. (more)

Newsworthy is published quarterly by the Carl Vinson Institute of Government at the University of Georgia.