STUDY QUESTIONS FOR THE NAP MEMBERSHIP EXAMINATION

NAP VISION STATEMENT

NAP’s vision is to provide parliamentary leadership to the world.
INTRODUCTION

Membership in the National Association of Parliamentarians (NAP) is open to individuals who demonstrate their continued interest in the study and practical use of parliamentary law as defined in the current edition of Robert’s Rules of Order Newly Revised (RONR) by Henry M. Robert.

This demonstration of interest is evidenced by successful completion of the NAP membership examination. These 300 study questions cover the basic points of parliamentary procedure considered necessary for an individual to participate effectively in an organization.

The examination consists of 100 questions randomly selected from these 300 study questions. Most of the study questions are taken from the first 126 pages of RONR (11th ed.) and tinted pages (TP) 4-29. However, to include information on minutes and committees, 28 questions were taken from pages 134, 162, 183, 207-210, 234, 270, 287, 299, 413, 468-475, 490-505, and 627. This makes a total of 164 pages (out of over 700 pages of RONR) to be studied in preparing for the examination. Another valuable resource is Robert’s Rules of Order Newly Revised In Brief (2nd ed.).

Numbers located next to questions throughout this document refer to corresponding page numbers in RONR (11th ed.).

A grade of 70% is necessary for successful completion of the examination.

These study questions became effective September 1, 2012. Examinations after that date will consist of 100 questions from these new study questions. Additional copies of the study questions and NAP membership application forms may be obtained from

   b. for the assembly’s guidance to ensure that more than one person is in favor of the motion.
   c. ensure that the record is clear who wanted to consider the particular motion.

109. The lack of a second has become immaterial
   a. after the chair has stated the question.
   b. after debate has begun.
   c. when the maker of the motion asks for permission to withdraw it.

110. A motion is open to debate when
   a. the motion is seconded.
   b. the motion has been stated by the chair.
   c. a member has made the motion.

111. When a proper motion has been made and seconded, the chair places it before the assembly by
   a. putting the question.
   b. stating the question.
   c. having the motion repeated by the maker of the motion.

112. A proper way to state the question on a main motion is to say
   a. “It has been moved and seconded that [or ‘to’]...[repeating the motion].
   b. “The question is on the motion [or ‘to’]...[repeating the motion].
   c. “It is moved and seconded that [or ‘to’]...[repeating the motion].

113. If a member makes a motion that is not in order
   a. he should be ruled out of order by the chair.
   b. it is accepted by the chair unless another member objects.
   c. the chair may suggest an alternate motion which would be in order.

114. A motion is recorded in the minutes as
   a. it was stated by the maker.
   b. the wording was improved by the chairman.

   a. be confined to the merits of the pending question and any amendments.
   b. last no longer than ten minutes.
   c. be confined to the merits of the pending question.

117. Unless there is a rule to the contrary, a member may speak
   a. twice during the same day.
   b. twice on the same question on the same day.
   c. once during the same day.

118. In putting a question to a vote, the chair should usually call for
   a. the affirmative and negative votes and then for any abstentions.
   b. abstentions first.
   c. the affirmative and negative votes.
119. Any member has the right to
   a. require that a voice vote be retaken as a rising vote when there is some doubt as to which side prevailed.
   b. question the voice vote under any circumstances.
   c. demand a counted vote.

120. The chair exercises his right to vote
   a. at all times.
   b. only when the vote is by secret ballot or when his vote would affect the outcome.
   c. only when he feels strongly about a question.

121. If there is a tie vote on a main motion, the result is
   a. the motion is lost.
   b. the vote is taken again.
   c. the chair must vote to break the tie.

TRUE or FALSE. Circle T if the sentence is correct or F if it is false.

T F 122. The making and seconding of a motion places it before the assembly.

T F 123. If the assembly decides to do what a motion proposes, it adopts the motion, or the motion is carried.

T F 124. To make a main motion, a member must obtain the floor when no other question is pending.

T F 125. A long and complicated motion, or a resolution, should be prepared in advance and put in writing.

T F 126. A motion put in writing and delivered to the chair must be read by the author of the motion.

T F 127. A motion made by direction of a board or committee of more than one person requires no second from the floor.

T F 128. When a member seconds a motion it means that he favors the motion.

T F 129. To abstain means not to vote at all.

T F 130. The member who seconds a motion does not have to agree with the motion and may in fact vote against it.

T F 131. After debate has begun the lack of a second has become immaterial.

T F 132. The chair may ask the secretary to read a resolution rather than doing so himself.

T F 133. A resolution, because of its length or complexity, is not considered as a Main Motion.

T F 134. With some exceptions, the chair must state the question on a motion immediately after it has been made and seconded.

T F 135. If a motion is out of order the chair should say, “You are out of order.”

T F 136. If the chair rules that a motion is out of order, his decision is subject to an appeal.
T F 137. The maker of a motion can withdraw it before it is stated by the chair. 40
T F 138. The maker of a motion has the right to speak first on the question. 42
T F 139. With the permission of the chair, a member may speak longer than permitted by the rules of the body. 43
T F 140. In debate, members should refer to officers only by title and should avoid the mention of other members’ names as much as possible. 43
T F 141. Members must never attack or make any allusion to the motives of members. 43
T F 142. The presiding officer may enter into debate on all motions. 43
T F 143. During debate a member must confine remarks to the pending question and avoid personalities. 43
T F 144. A vote by voice is the regular method of voting on any motion that does not require more than a majority for its adoption. 45
T F 145. The chair need not ask for the negative vote when the affirmative vote sounds loud enough. 45
T F 146. If a rising vote remains inconclusive, the chair or the assembly can order the vote to be counted. 47
T F 147. The chair’s announcement of the result of a counted vote should include the number of votes on each side, whether the motion is adopted or lost, and the effect of the vote. 48
T F 148. A member has the right to require that a voice vote be retaken as a rising vote, even when there is no reasonable doubt of the result of the voice vote. 52
T F 149. Unanimous consent satisfies the requirement of a 2/3 vote. 56
T F 150. A call for “Division” immediately after a voice vote is a demand for a rising vote. 51
T F 151. A member must be assigned the floor before the member can second a motion. 35
T F 152. The use of the unanimous consent procedure is appropriate when it is believed that there is no minority to protect. 54
