The Carl Vinson Institute of Government’s Quarterly Newsletter

April–June 2016

Keep up with the Institute of Government daily.

Latest News
Institute, Cobb Chamber collaborate on workforce development program

The Institute and the Cobb County Chamber of Commerce are partnering to develop more effective ways of matching workforce skills with employers’ needs, using techniques developed for the Governor’s High Demand Career Initiative...read more

Textile mill redevelopment proposals presented to Rossville community leaders

An Institute economic development partnership with the Georgia Municipal Association supported by the Lyndhurst Foundation provided revitalization plans for the Peerless Mills site in the northwest Georgia city of Rossville...read more

Institute's International Center fostering exchange program between Athens, Seoul

A second meeting between Athens-Clarke County government leaders and officials with Seoul’s Seodaemun District government helped advance a cultural and economic exchange program that the Institute's International Center is facilitating...read more
Local government course taught by Institute’s director kindles MPA students’ interest

UGA master of public administration students drew inspiration from an engaging local government course taught by Institute Director Laura Meadows, who recruited highly regarded public administrators to share their knowledge and experience...read more

Institute, DBHDD partner to present regional veterans’ health conference

Health professionals and judicial personnel from across the Southeast gained critical skills for helping veterans affected by trauma-related disorders at a conference the Institute coordinated with the Georgia Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Disabilities...read more

Faculty member provides public health presentation at IMF-World Bank forum

Institute faculty member Paula Sanford gave a presentation at the Civil Society Policy Forum, a joint World Bank–International Monetary Fund conference, about critical ways that government collaborations can improve public health and support sustainable development...read more

County, city leaders enhance skills through Institute training during annual conferences

Hundreds of city and county government leaders added critical expertise through professional development training delivered by the Institute at the ACCG Annual Conference (more) and the Georgia Municipal Association Annual Convention ...read more

Learn more about what we're doing!
The Institute of Government offers the GOV360® assessment tool for public leaders to offer objective information about their leadership performance. Learn more.

Upcoming Events

GMA Summer Training
Aug. 11–12

ACCG Leadership Institute
Aug. 17–19

Georgia Certified Economic Developer courses
Aug. 23

Newsworthy Notable
Beverly Johnson
State Services and Decision Support
Public Service Assistant

Beverly provides critical expertise for two of the Institute’s program areas. She manages a team that partners with the Georgia Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Disabilities to provide critical professional development training, including helping to launch the DBHDD Management Academy for key department personnel. She is helping manage our workforce development initiatives, which identify the career skills most needed by strategic industries in Georgia and promote effective job training to meet those needs.

Upcoming Events

www.cviog.uga.edu

Newsworthy is published quarterly by the Carl Vinson Institute of Government at the University of Georgia. You are receiving this email because you attended an event or signed up at an event facilitated by the Carl Vinson Institute of Government.