Through the use of case studies, small group work, and role plays, the class will examine

- arrange the room
- recognizing and diffusing disruptive behavior
- engaging participants in meaningful dialogue

The decision-making process
- managing meetings
- forecasting future planning needs
- incorporating data and demographics

What is COVERED?

Register online at: www.cviog.uga.edu/planning-and-zoning-training
NOTE: Any ordinance, rules of procedure or other information provided in this handbook should be reviewed and approved by the local government’s attorney before adoption.